JACKSON CITY ITEMS

Local Happenings About Amador's County Seat

Mr and Mrs C. G. Heiser left for San Francisco Tuesday morning for a short stay. Their son, Charles Heiser and his wife were about to start for Honolulu, and the parents went to the city mainly to see them off.

Horse Operated On

Dr. Golding, a promising young veterinary surgeon, who has recently located in Jackson, performed a successful operation on a horse owned by Peter Podesta. The animal had a deformity of the front legs, commonly called buck knees, and was practically a useless derelict. The veterinary chloroformed the beast and cut certain tendons just above the knees, which allowed the legs to straighten. The animal was allowed to come to its senses, and found himself standing as straight as ever. Dr. Golding says the operation was a complete success.

Finger Badly Cut

Eugene Benedetti, a miner employed at the Zeila mine, received an injury to the little finger of his right hand, that nearly caused him the loss of it. Benedetti, who was pushing an ore car, caught his hand between the car and some timbers, and turning the fingers in its moving action, cut the flesh to the bone clear around the finger. The bone fortunately was not broken. Dr. Sprague is the attending physician.

Hunting Lost Treasure.

James Meek, the veteran prospector of Amador county, returned to Jackson early this week, after a prospecting trip to Mariposa county. He was attracted to that county partly by reports of a buried hoard of gold deposited in early days by one known to have amassed considerable wealth. The man and his wife were conducting a general merchandise business at a point some four miles from Coulterville. As the story goes, a sack containing gold alleged to be worth over $30,000 was exhibited by one of the parties. A dispute arose between them, and a division of the savings was had, and it is said both piles of gold were cached in the earth, each depository being unknown to the other owner. In this way the wealth was lost sight of. It could not be traced into any bank, nor accounted for in any way, and the supposition is this store of gold remains buried about the premises to this day. The neighborhood of the old store has been dug over at different times in hopes of uncovering the lost gold, but without avail. Meek was no more successful in this novel prospecting tour than others who preceded him.

Will Try Traction Engine for Hauling

The experiment of hauling logs, mining timbers and mining supplies generally from the timber belt to the mines of Jackson and Sutter Creek by traction engine is about to be tried. J. B. Parsons, who conducted the saw mill in Antelope district last summer, has been fixing the road wherever necessary, so as to make it possible for a machine of this character to pass over it. He is sanguine that the plan is feasible, and the outcome will be watched with interest. The distance to be traversed is from twenty to thirty miles. A slight reduction of expenses as compared with horse or mule teams would insure a profit. The great difficulty is the roughness of the road, and the cost of keeping the engine in working condition incident thereto.

OLD RESIDENT LAID TO REST

Funeral of Mary Fregulia is Largely Attended by Societies

Mrs Mary Fregulia was peacefully laid to rest Sunday afternoon. The funeral cortege left the residence of the deceased at 2 p. m., and proceeded to the Catholic church, where mass was celebrated by Father Laffan. The remains were then taken to the Catholic cemetery in Jackson, and interred.

Mrs Fregulia was 44 years old, and a native daughter of California, of which society she was a member. She also was associated with the United Ancient Order of Druids. The deceased was twice married, both husbands are dead. She leaves children to mourn her loss, John Firenzi and Frank Firenzi, and two step children, Kate Fregulia and John Fregulia.

Teresa Getelli, a sister-in-law from San Francisco attended the services, and quite a number of out of town relatives and friends were present.

Many beautiful floral emblems were sent: The Native Daughters of the Golden West, sent a large initial letter D of roses; The Ancient Order of Druids, sent a large artificial cross; Mr and Mrs N. Dal Porto, a pillow of roses; Mrs R. Davalle and Mrs L. Sabatini, a heart of white pinks; Mrs Cademartori, a beautiful anchor of roses; Mr and Mrs A. Cuneo, rose cross; Mrs L. Piccardo, a large bouquet of white roses for casket; Mrs L. Silva and Kate Yolo, a large star and crescent of mixed flowers, and many other appropriate designs that had no cards attached, were sent by loving friends of the deceased.

Ludekens Candidate for Constable

In this issue appears the announcement of Charles Ludekens, as a candidate for the democratic nomination for constable in township three. He recently had his right hand cut off by coming in contact with a circular saw while working at the Mitchell mine near Pine Grove. This accident of course has crippled him for life. He returned to work at the mine this week, doing such light work as he is able to do with the one hand left him. He has the sympathy of all, as he is naturally an indefatigable worker. He will undoubtedly receive the nomination of his party without opposition.

A Fishing Story

A fishing party consisting of Miss Anna M. Hinckley, A. Harding, D. S. Mason and wife spent a day last week along the banks of Lake Tabeau. The fishing was simply great, was the way one of the party expressed himself, and more than 25 large black bass and trout were hooked. These, according to the story of one of the fishermen, were snugly packed in a box, and the trip for home was made. It seems there was unfortunately an end gate to the buggy, and this gate it is claimed became unloosened and opened, and the fish just disappeared, at any rate, when the party reached Jackson, they were shy the fish they claimed were caught.

A great reduction sale is now on pattern hats, untrimmed shapes, feathers, flowers, ribbons, laces, nets, everything in the millinery line at Mrs K. L. Delahide's, Weil building.

Bungalow Finished on Broadway

The handsome bungalow residence of Dr. Gall on Broadway, has been completed, and was turned over to the owners early this week. The contractor, Mr Lemue, faithfully complied with the terms of the contract, and the little alterations in the specifications which were desired were complied with, so that the entire work from beginning to finish was carried through in a manner perfectly satisfactory to both sides. The contractor left for his home in Stockton Tuesday morning, having realized a fair profit from his labors. Dr. Gall and wife are settled in their own home, which is not only one of the most attractive in appearance, but also among the most convenient in its interior arrangements to be found in Jackson.

BAZAAR WAS BIG SUCCESS

Nearly $150 Was Taken In By Committee In Charge

The Ladies Guild of the Episcopal church held a most delightful bazaar and supper last Saturday evening in the Odd Fellow's building.

The fancy booth was in charge of Mrs Gregory, Mrs Schwartz and Mrs Coombs.

The candy booth was handled by Miss Sutherland and Mrs Spagnoli. The supper was served from 5:30 p. m. until about 10:30, and the proceeds amounted to nearly $150.

Cold meats, salads, fruit and coffee were part of the luncheon served, and the meal was very tastefully gotten up.

The large hall was elaborately decorated and greatly aided in helping make the occasion a success.

Mrs Harper, Mrs Fisher, Mrs Wm Penry jr., Miss Muzel, Miss Clark and Mrs Endicott, were on the bazaar committee of arrangements, and deserve much credit for the manner in which they carried out their work.

The proceeds will go towards defraying debts, which the church has contracted.

Mrs Hnrst, former proprietor of the Globe hotel was the winner of the large brass kettle, which was chanced off by the Ladies Guild of the Episcopal church.

Keeping Up With Modern Progress

If you are dubious about the Ledger's rating ask any farmer or miner in the county, and you will receive a positive unanimous reply, we like it, and our parents always subscribed for it.

As a newspaper and job printing plant the Ledger is equipped with an outfit equal to any establishment on the Coast. We have all new machinery consisting of 3 automatic numbering machines a large automatic perforation machine, a wire stitching machine for books, etc., a combination machine for punching holes, stitch stabling, cutting round corners, etc., a standard job press, Washington proof press, largest size standard paper cutter, Ruling machine for largest job, a folding machine and automatic paster, a standard Campbell newspaper press and Simplex typesetting machine. The office is really composed of 3 complete plants with an addition of many of the latest type designs. This combined with skill of a printer whose designs have been copied and printed by such printing journals as the Inland Printer ought to be inducement enough for any one who desires good work at reasonable prices, to give us a trial.

Arrested for Creating Disturbance

Domenic Magnini and his brother Paul were arrested by marshal Sanguinetti, for creating a disturbance in front of the Odd Fellows building. Both plead guilty to the charge. Paul was dismissed with a reprimand, while Domenic was ordered to pay a fine of $10. They were both under the influence of liquor at the time of arrest, but a night spent in the cooler, brought back their senses and they were bright and clear at the hearing the following morning. The fine was promptly paid, and they left wiser and better men.

MINE NEWS ALONG LODGE

Interesting Accounts of Mines Located In Amador Co.

Mitchell

At this mine, situated about a mile north of Pine Grove, the ten stamp mill was started over a week ago, and has been running steadily since. The mine gives employment to about eight men, machine drills being used. The ore is coming from the old works at the 200 foot level, of which there is a large body in sight, low grade in character, but with the improved facilities for handling it, the managers are confident it can be crushed at a profit.

Bunker Hill

The hearts of the stockholders were gladdened last Monday by the payment of a 15 cent dividend per share—the second big dividend within six months. After paying this amount, which aggregates $30,000 there is still left a surplus in the treasury of about $70,000, which is deemed ample to provide against any emergency. The ore body at the 1950 level is improving in quality as progress is made. It is expected to reach the bonanza part of the ledge in this level in two or three weeks.

Former Resident Gets Thirteen Years

Luca Vukalovich, a young Austrian 23 years of age, and a former Jackson boy, held up and robbed a Chinaman in Placer county, and was sentenced in the Auburn court to 13 years in the state prison a San Quentin. Vukalovich secured $7.10 cents, a watch, knife and pocket book from his victim all of which were found upon his person at the time of his arrest. The prisoner has a brother and cousin living in Amador City. He resided at the home of John Milojevich while in Jackson. Chris Marelia was sent to Auburn by friends to learn what could be done for the prisoner, but as a plea of guilty was entered, Marelia thought it useless to secure an attorney.

$200,000 LAW SUIT ANSWERED

Argonaut vs. Kennedy Extension—Answer Filed

The answer of the defendant corporation in this big damage suit, both to the original and amended complaint, was filed in the superior court during the past week. It is a long document, and traverses every material allegation of the complaint. Suit is brought for damages to the amount of $200,000 for alleged trespass of defendant upon the mining ground of plaintiff, and the extraction and removal therefrom of large quantities of gold bearing rock, estimated of the value of the above amount, the ore so taken being from claims known as the Muldoon and Jackson mining claims, owned by plaintiff.

The answer is a sweeping denial of the allegations of the complaint; some denials are made on the ground of lack of information of the truth of the statements set up in the complaint. On all the vital points, however, the denial is positively made.

It denies that there is within the boundaries of the Muldoon and Jackson claims any outcrops of any vein. It alleges that within the exterior boundaries of these claims, extended downward vertically, there is a portion of a vein known as the Pioneer or Argonaut vein, the apex of which is entirely within the Argonaut mining ground. In its downward course the Argonaut vein passes out of and beyond the east side

Watch Our Business Directory grow it means dollars to all who enlist under its headline.

Business Directory For County Readers

The Ledger has added a much needed improvement to its paper in the form of a business directory, for the business people of Jackson. The business houses represented in this directory are strictly reliable, and the proprietors of each of the establishments have reputations gained by long years of honest integrity. The manager of the paper realizes that many articles found advertised in the city papers which circulate here, are bought out of the county; yet they can be secured in Jackson at just as reasonable prices, and desiring to assist Jackson merchants, by giving their ads more prominence, a business directory was started. By patronizing Jackson stores, the merchants are enabled to continue their improvements.

AUGUST GRILLO PASSES AWAY

County Supervisor Died in San Francisco on Wednesday

Early yesterday morning the news of the death of August Grillo was circulated throughout Amador county, and the flag of the court house and also over the Bank of Amador county were raised to half-mast out of respect to the deceased, who was a supervisor of the county, and also a director of the local bank at the time of his death. The mournful intelligence came not as a surprise, as it was known that for over a week his life was slowly but surely ebbing away, due to the ravages of that fatal malady—Bright's disease of the kidneys—from which he had suffered for several years.

Deceased attended the last meeting of the board of supervisors on May 2 and 3d. He was taken with a severe sinking spell incident to the disease on the evening of the 3d. The following morning he left with his relatives for Stockton, and from there was taken to San Francisco, entering the St. Francis hospital. A number of noted experts were called into consultation over his case, but all agreed that there was no hope whatever—the end was merely a question of a few days or hours. District attorney C. P. Vicini, his legal adviser, was called to the city last week to fix up his business, and returned this week. Deceased was conscious of the approaching end, but cheerfully resigned to his fate. Life for several days was sustained by artificial methods. He died Wednesday evening about 9 o'clock.

Deceased was a native of California, aged 36 years. He was raised in the vicinity of Volcano, where nearly the whole of his life was passed. With his brothers, he was engaged in the merchandising, butchering and livery business in that town. In 1902 he was elected on the republican ticket as supervisor of district three, and held that office continuously up to the time of his death, having been reelected in 1906.

Deceased was married to Miss Clorinda Cassinelli of Volcano early last year. Beside his young wife and nine months old daughter, he leave a mother and father, also four brothers—Domenico, Erank, John and James; and two sisters, Mary and Florence Grillo, nearly all living in Volcano. Heceased was an active worker in every enterprise for the up-building of Amador county, and particularly of the eastern section. He was popular with all classes. By his removal Amador county has lost one its best and most useful citizens.

The funeral will be held in Volcano on Sunday morning next, under the direction of Excelsior parlor N.S.G.W., services in the Catholic church, and interment in the cemetery of that town, by the side of a brother who was killed by a fall from a horse about four years ago.

Funeral Notice.

All members of Excelsior Parlor No. 31, N. S. G. W. are requested to attend the funeral of Brother August Grillo, at his residence at Volcano, on Sunday, May 22. By order of the president. L. Vandament.

Appointed as Delegate

Schools Closed

Purchase Big Drove of Steers

This week W. D. Amick purchased from Frank McCullough at Michigan Bar, 260 head of steers at an average price of a little over $55 each. They are a fine lot. The first consignment of 74 head, came in Wednesday and were driven to Galt Thursday. The balance will be delivered next week. The purchase was made for the Whitaker estate, and the stock will be shipped to Reno.—Echo.

Tries to Improve City

Rev. Y. W. Moulton, a colored evangelist, traveling through this section, spent a few days in Jackson this week and preached at the Methodist church last Monday night. The clergyman represents the Southern Baptist association, and is touring this part of the country advocating his ideas wherever a listening ear will hear him. The colored pastor spoke to a congregation in the street, and humorously told the story of Jonah and the whale, which caused considerable merriment.

School Census Returns.

We give below the official figures of the complete school census returns, as reported to and approved by the school superintendent. Also the official figures of the census last year, so that comparison may be made showing the increase or decrease in the respective districts. The return this year show a gain of 30 in school population for the past year. This is very ratifying showing, especially considering the fact that for a number of years past the county has been steadily losing in juvenile population. Willow Springs is the banner district in increase, having gained 150 per cent during the year. This was one of the struggling districts, and looked upon in danger of lapsing for lack of children. But an influx of new settlers set in, and the district furnishes more children than can be comfortably accommodated with existing facilities. A new schoolhouse is talked of as a necessary enterprise in the near future.

Store Room Enlarged

Cassinelli, the popular groceryman has remodeled his store room. The wall between the front and back room has been cut out, making one large room, an additional room has been added to the rear, which will be used as a store house.

Pioneer Laid to Rest

The Hon. G. J. Carpenter, a pioneer citizen of El Dorado, died at his home in Placerville on May 6th, aged 87 years. He occupied a prominent place in the politics of that county for many years, having filled during his long career several state and county offices. He was for a time the proprietor of the Mountain Democrat, and finally presented the plant and goodwill of that paper to his daughter, Miss Mollie Carpenter, the present proprietress.

Ball Game Off

It was arranged that a baseball game was to be played next Sunday at Zeila park between the Jackson team and a Sacramento nine. Word came Wednesday, however, that the Capital city boys would be unable to attend, so the game was declared off. Unless an impromptu game can be arranged, the prospect is that there will be nothing doing on the local diamond next Sunday.

Dog Saves Master From Jail Sentence

Elizabeth, N. J.—The mute appeal of his pet mastiff saved James Conrad from a jail sentence. The animal followed an officer to the court room, and when its master was arraigned before Judge Mahon to answer to a charge of larceny the animal put its forepaws on his shoulders and licked his face. Conrad was remanded for the grand jury.

As the door closed behind the prisoner, the dog looked mournfully at it and then rushed about the courtroom, licking the hands of each officer. Not a person in the court stirred as the animal finally put his paws upon Judge Mahon's bench and whined piteously.

"Dogs often know more than men," commented Judge Mahon. "Conrad cannot be so bad, after all, if the animal loves him like that." The prisoner was brought out and sent home with a reprimand.

Red Front Improving

The Red Front are making alterations to their popular store, which when completed, will greatly add to the efficiency of the establishment. A mezzanine floor is being constructed and shelving built in, which is intended to be used for storing reserved stock.

Sheriff Makes Arrest

Last Saturday sheriff Gregory was looking about the grounds at the picnic when he discovered a trio of fellows operating a sure-thing game with some sort of a dice or number arrangement. He saw that it was a bald robbing game and one that nobody had the slightest show at, so he arrested the man who was conducting the game and brought him before Justice Gartlin. In court the man gave his name as J. M. Bailey, and his residence at 988 Mc Allister street, San Francisco. He put up a cash bail for $100 for his appearance at 10 o'clock Monday morning. The justice was on hand at that time, but the defendant did not show up to protect his cash deposit, whereupon Justice Gartlin declared it forfeited. He got off cheap at that for, there was a clear case against him and Justice Gartlin would have gone the full extent of the law had he stood trial and been convicted.—Echo

New Street Signs

The street signs have been placed in position all over the city, and present a very neat appearance, with white enamel letters on a blueground. In most cases, and wherever practicable they have been nailed to walls at street corner. Where this is not possible, neat posts have been erected, and the signs fastened thereto.

Bride at Nine Asks for A Divorce.

Memphis, Tenn.—Nellie M. Johnson Lamar, 10 years of age, is plaintiff in a divorce action against Newlan L. Lamar, 32. The child was married on July 15, 1909, when she was 9 years of age. The ceremony was performed by a Rev. Owmby, who declared the license was read to him by the light of a match, and that the bride's long dress aided the darkness in hiding her age. In her suit, Mrs. Lahmar alleges her husband enticed her from her parents when she was at an age too young to know her mind.

"Suffered day and night the torment of itching piles. Nothing healed me until I used Doan's Ointment. It cured me permanently."—Hon. John R. Garrett, Mayor, Giard, Ala.

Miner Breaks Arm

James A. Ross narrowly escaped death while at work in the Kennedy mine Monday morning about 9 o'clock. Ross was working on the 3100 level when he lost his balance and fell through a raise, breaking his wrist and sustaining a severe shake up. The unfortunate man was immediately taken to the surface and then to the office of Dr. Gall, where he was treated and his injured arm properly dressed.

DONT HIDE YOUR MONEY

The man who hides his money because he assumes to be afraid of banks forgets that it was the bank that perhaps made the prosperity possible which gave him his money making opportunities. Without the bank there would be no large commercial or business enterprises possible, salaries and wages would be low, and money making impossible. It is the bank in the exercise of its function in gathering together the funds of a community and putting them into active use that has brought prosperity.

To hide money is to hinder and hurt prosperity by restricting the circulation of money. Bring your money to the bank.

Lion Fondles A Child

In Pittsburg a savage lion fondled the hand that a child thrust into his cage. Danger to a child is sometimes great when least regarded. Often it comes through colds, croup, and whooping cough. They slay thousands that Dr. King's New Discovery could have saved. "A few doses cured our baby of a very bad case of croup," writes Mrs George B. Davis, of Flat Rock, N. C., "We always give it to him when he takes cold. It is a wonderful medicine for babies." Best for coughs, colds, la-grippe, asthma, hemorrhages, weak lungs. 50c. $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guarantee by Spagnoli's drug store.

Health Receipts For the Foolish

If you feel sort of run down go immediately to one of the big skyscrapers in your town and ask the elevator boy to run you up.

If you suffer from insomnia, light your lamp and read William James on Pragmatism backward forty times without stopping. You will find it helpful.

If your spirit is worn out, and you find yourself discouraged because you are down and on your uppers, go at once and have yourself resouled.

If you lack confidence in yourself, take a run over into Egypt, and loiter about the Saraha until you have acquired all the sand you need.

If some dainty maid has thrown you down so hard as to break your heart, gather up the pieces and ask some other maid to put them together again.

If you suffer from a frightful toothache, go to your dentist and let him pull your leg. This will lower the seat of the pain very materially.

If your ears are frozen in an April snowstorm, do not be downcast. May will be here shortly and they will surely thaw.

If you have a bad toothache go out upon the highway and get into a row with a cleverer man than yourself. In the excitement of the fracas you may loose your head.

If your eyelids are red and in a bad condition generally, walk down Fifth avenue and look at the pretty girls that pass by you. Some of them are good for sore eyes.

If your stomach goes back on you, turn around and walk the other way five miles each day and you will soon catch up with it again.

If your eyes get out of focus so that you see everything double, call upon the girl of your heart and comfort yourself with the thought that they are both yours.—Harper's Weekly.

GOVERNMENT EXPENSES Showing How Facts and Heavy Figures Could Be Reduced

If every hundred dollars of property in the United States were made to pay about one dollar and seventy cent a year in taxes the revenue so derived would meet all expenses of government—Federal, state and local. There would be no need of customs duties or of internal revenue taxes to support the federal government or of the great sums which states and cities raise by license fees, franchise taxes and the like. This statement is based upon the latest figures of governmental disbursements supplied by the statistical bureau of the treasury.

According to the same authority, each hundred dollars of property that is directly taxed at all pays two dollars and five cents a year, and that doesn't half meet the bills. It produces only seven hundred and twenty-five million, while the governments—Federal, state and local—spend seventeen hundred million. The farmer or small householder pays his two dollars and five cents on each hundred, and then has to chip in his share of the additional billion dollars—made up of customs duties, internal revenue taxes, license fees—which the governments spend.

Total cost of running the governments—Federal, state and local—amounts to about twenty dollars a head a year, or a hundred dollars for a family of five. A totally thriftless person may escape his share, and an exceedingly thrifty person may escape his. But we surmise that a great body of reasonably thrifty head of families pay more than their share. Except as regards the tariff very little is heard of this subject in politics, and yet it is obviously a big subject. Said an experienced member of an Illinois taxing body the other day: "Under the laws now on our statute books it is absolutely impossible to make an equitable assessment."—Saturday Post.

Will Try to Hide From Comet

Pasadena.—When Halley's comet approaches nearer the earth Stephen Harter of Pasadena is likely to be the only human survivor, according to his declaration. Harter, who is a gardener, has dug a cave in his back yard which he has stocked with canned goods and other provisions and provided with a system of ventilations which are controlled with strings leading to an inner chamber, where he will hide when the heavenly wanderer comes.

Harter believes all life on the earth will be snuffed out by the deadly gases which compose the comet's tail. He doesn't propose to be snuffed, and each night he retires in a bed in the inner chamber, the strings controlling the ventilators hanging close beside his bed.

The nine months old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hill was taken with spasms Tuesday evening, without any previous symptoms of illness. A doctor was called, but the little one died in two or three hours after the first attack.

THIS IS CERTAIN.

The Proof That Jackson Readers Can't Deny

What could furnish stronger evidence of the efficiency of any remedy than the test of time? Thousands of people testify that Doan's Kidney Pills cure permanently.

Home endorsement should prove undoubtedly the merit of this remedy. Years ago your friends and neighbors testified of the relief they had derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They now confirm their testimonials. They say time has completed the test.

Mrs. James Cook, 25 Water street, Jackson, Cal., says: "For a long time I was afflicted with kidney complaint and my health became all run down. My back ached continually and I was subject to headaches and dizzy spells. The contents of the first box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the City Pharmacy, worked wonders and after I had used four boxes of this remedy, my trouble was a thing of the past. I am only too glad to endorse Doan's Kidney Pills." (Statement given in July 1907.)

GOOD WORK.
Mrs. Cook was interviewed on April 5, 1910, and she added to the above: "I have nothing to retract from the statement I gave in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills in 1907. My cure has been permanent, and thus my faith in this remedy has increased."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Woman Objects to Religious Massage

Chicago.—The police to-day are endeavoring to secure evidence against Sakham G. Pandit, a Hindu "with a hypnotic eye," whose Oriental religious practices have been denounced by many of his women students and by chief Stewart, who himself is a theosophist.

It was learned that a young society woman was the first to make a complaint to the police in connection with Pandit's alleged teachings. The woman in her statement to the authorities declared that Pandit, after chanting weirdly for ten minutes, had her under his influence and then began a "massage treatment" which the Hindu averred was a part of his Yogi religion. The society woman said he placed his hand on her shoulder and she "felt herself swaying."

"Let us commune with Yogi," Pandit is alleged to have told her, as he took her into another room.

The woman wrote to Anne Besant, high priestess of the Theosophical society and indignantly asked if "massage" was a part of religion.

FILE LIENS AGAINST MINE

Over Ninety Miners Ask for Claims On Keystone

Over ninety liens were filed in the recorder's office last Saturday, against the California Consolidated Mines Co., the claims aggregating over $15,000, representing wages due employees for labor performed upon the Keystone mine at Amador City. With the foreclosure suit of Jasper McDonald for balance due on purchase price, and attachment suit of Chichizola Estate, it is believed that the outcome of the financial tangle will be a change in the control of this famous property. FROM OUR EXCHANGES

News of Interest from Near-by Counties

Our genial Wallace stage driver, Jesse Lyon and Miss Laura Lamb of Burson went to the Lockeford picnic last Wednesday and surprised their relatives and friends by going from there to Stockton, where they were married. They returned to Wallace Saturday and drove to Lancha Plana, where they are furnishing a nice little home suitable for two. Their many friends wish them all kinds of good luck and happiness.—Prospect.

The Perry Dredging Company of Oroville shipped a drill here last week which they moved up the river to Lancha Plana, where they expect to do some extensive prospecting for a site to build a dredger on. There is no doubt they will find several hundred acres along the river bottom that will pay to dredge.—Prospect.

Last Friday, sheriff Jones went to Camp Seco and arrested Domenico Ochoa, wanted in Tulare for non-support of his family. Ochoa was brought here and lodged in jail, and Saturday the Tulare officers came after him and took him back to that county. Ochoa married one of the Mason girls from the family that lived on the Calaveras river near Valley Springs, a few years ago, and gained considerable notoriety through the trial of the parents for the murder of Jose Nandini. We understand that it will be difficult to make a case against Ochoa, as it is said the wife left him, instead of his leaving the wife.—Prospect.

J. G. Brubaker is about to close one of the largest single clay deals in the history of the business here—3000 tons—as also the sale of a choice piece of clay land.—Echo.

S. T. Gage shipped twelve care of steers from the Grant to the Western Meat Company last Saturday, aggregating 262 head. There will be another delivery of about 520 head June 1st.—Echo.

Mrs E. V. Zumbiel of Jackson, who was to have been one of the aides to the grand marshal last Saturday, met with an accident in the morning, which came near being serious. Her horse was frisky, and just before the parade started he reared and fell backward, throwing Mrs Zumbiel to the ground. She luckily escaped with some minor bruises and a bad shake-up. Dr Adams attended to her bruises and she will get along all right. This was the only accident reported during the day.—Echo.

About May 5th safes in the post office at Dutch Flat were blown open with nitro glycerine and something like $180 together with gold nuggets and jewelry taken. It is now believed from a carefully prepared detail of their work that they are the same parties who blew open the safe in the office of Raggio Bros. of this town about a month ago. They are undoubtedly experts in the use of explosives used by miners. It is also believed that these are the same cracksmen who have been operating in Amador and San Joaquin counties.—Angels Record.

Saved from the Grave

"I had about given up hope, after nearly four years of suffering from a severe lung trouble," writes Mrs M. L. Dix, of Clarksville, Tenn. Its the best medicine made for the throat and lungs." Stepped on Rusty Nail

Chas. Godell, a laborer, who has been repairing roads about town had the misfortune to step on a rusty nail, which penetrated the ball of the foot, nearly running through the foot. Dr. Sprague attended the unfortunate victim cauterizing and otherwise dressing the injured foot.

THE REWARD

(Written by Robert Whitaker, and suggested by the passing of Mrs Frances Margaret Milne.)

They made not much of her going, the throng on the crowded street, There was little sign of their knowing she had passed them on winged feet, They had hardly heard of her presence, or her high unselfish song, For the sorest ill is the sudden will of the victims themselves of wrong.

How little they recked of Moses, the slaves whom he slaved to free, How the olden tale discloses the thing that must always be, Slave striving with slave, and scorning the work that would bless them both For the bitter part in all saving art is the slave's own selfish sloth.

Has ever a prophet spoken against the enthroned abuse That his own heart was not broken by those whom he came to loose? They could help their oppressors rather than themselves and their goods defend, For the world is slow to rebuke a foe, but swift to destroy a friend.

Where yet is the state or nation that gives not its best to those Who merit its indignation far more than its open foes? Or the church, though it prate of Jesus, which does not the scribes prefer? For the easy way is to fawn and pray, and stifle the truths that stir.

Then wherefore the fuss and flurry, or wherefore the thorns and the cross? Were it not as well to be merry, and leave the world to its loss? What profit have all the martyrs of aly their belated fame? For their very praise in the later days but hideth the later shame.

What profit the gain of living, for nothing but this is life; Who knows not the joy of giving himself in heroic strife Is a partner yet with the cattle, with less than their calm content, For a man must do something large and true or fail of a man's intent.

And what is there more worth doing than to dream of the days to be? With a steadfast prow pursuing the quest of the sunset sea: To dream, and to dare and suffer, as only the strong soul can? For the highest gain is the meed of pain, and the martyr is still the man.

They made not much of her going, nor much of her high-born song, But her's was the joy of knowing she had dared to defy the wrong, And the greater joy of loving, a loving by greed unmarred, For the heart of bliss is ever this, that love is its own reward.

World Touring Dog Team Has Narrow Escape From Police.

Chico, Butte Co.—William Brown, who claims that he is making a tour of the world on a wager, narrowly escaped a delay in his schedule. His activity in leaving Chico saved him from arrest.

Brown's method of travel in winning his wager is by means of a dog-team which hauls him twenty miles or more a day. He was going up street with a dog tied behind his rig. The animal was pulling back and the team was dragging it along the street. Some bystanders remonstrated with Brown, who told his advisers to go on. Then it was that the justice of the peace was sought. Before the judge could be found Brown was out in the country.

Remedies are Needed

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the early ages, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glyceric compound, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other Intestinal Derangements, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

Band Director Leaves

C. Schultz, the instructor of the Jackson Military band, has severed his connection with that organization, having told them last week that they must look for another instructor. This is to be regretted. Mr Shultz is an excellent instructor, and well qualified in every way as a musician, and was always on hand when there was work to be done. The band has been demoralized by the withdrawal. There was no playing on the street last Saturday as was expected. We presume the organization will try to get another instructor as soon as possible.

Works Five Years in Vain: Fortune Lost by 3 Days

Yreka, Siskiyou Co.—After working for five years in one mine, spending $20,000 in search of gold and then allowing his bond to expire, George Addison had the satisfaction of learning that the gold he sought in vain was found after three days' work by the new operators, according to his story told here.

Addison had a bond on the Johnson mine in this county for more than five years, and spent over $20,000 in hunting the ledge that had been lost for many years. He was unable to find the ledge and gave up his bond and lease when the term expired.

Sevenman & Holgate took a bond on the property, and in three days uncovered a twenty-inch ledge that runs about $100 to the ton.

The Annual Meet of the Amador Association of Alameda

The regular annual meet of the Amador Association of the Bay counties was held last Saturday at East Shore Park, an ideal place for such gathering, located between Berkeley and Richmond. There was an unusually large attendance, not only of former residents of Amador county, but of many others, who were attracted by the announcement of the picnic. It is estimated that at least 500 persons were present. The park was offered free of charge, which is customary where no admission fee is charged. Free refreshments in the shape of coffee were served to all who wished to partake thereof. A very enjoyable program was prevented, including remarks by John R. Tregloan and others; a solo by B. M. Leaves; duett, by Misses Blanche and Fern Martin; address by Mrs Grant Miller; solo by Mrs Alpha Martin Hansen. Judge Fred V. Wood and Mrs Wood were present during the afternoon. Everything passed off very pleasantly, all the former residents of Amador testifying of their fond recollections of the years spent in this county.

In Dellrium Tells Why They Feel.

GLASGOW, Ky.—In delirium, A. Holland Forbes, injured when; his baloon Viking crashed to earth near Center, Ky., give a clew to the manner in which it occurred. That he and J. C. Yates, a New York astronomer were, overcome by escaping gas and that he then lost control of the baloon, was indicated by his rambling narrative. "There is the Connecticut line," he raved; "there is Missouri," he added a few minutes later. "There is Illinois; there is Kentucky and Tennessee. There's Illinois again."

Suddenly his mutterings stopped; then he shrieked: "Yates, the gas is leaking' I've lost control We've got to lighten her! I'm about gone! I can't get my breath!"

Then the injured man, who had been tossing restlessly, lay quiet and his disconnected story was not finished.

The case will come up for hearing in the Sacramento land office, as to the merits of the locator's and townsite patent holder's claims. The suit involves the title to a few feet of ground in Angels Camp, which proved rich in mineral, having yielded several hundred dollars in gold. W. J. McGee is one of the attorneys for the Lightner.

line of the Argonaut ground, and penetrates the vertical boundaries of the Muldoon, but that no part of this vein is a part of the Muldoon mine.

The ground known as the Pioneer millsite lies north of the Muldoon mine, and the land is alleged to be entirely non-mineral, except where the Pioneer lode in is downward course passes underneath the surface of said millsite. It is admitted that in 1893 the Argonaut company sunk a shaft within the boundaries of this mill site, for the purpose of intersecting and conveniently working the vein or lode whose apex is within the Pioneer ground. This shaft has been sunk 3300 feet, and intersects in its easterly course downward the lode 300 feet from the collar of the shaft; that the defendant has been working its mine through said shaft by right of ownership of said Argonaut or Pioneer mine. That all ores removed from its underground workings within the surface boundaries of the plaintiff's ground downward vertically belonged to the Argonaut mine, and no incursion whatever was made thereby upon the territory of the plaintiff.

It is alleged that levels of the Argonaut at the 1460 and 1690 feet were extended more than five years ago a short distance south of and beyond the extra-lateral boundary of the Argonaut vein, encountering no ore whatever underneath the surface of the Jackson mine. These levels were driven through barren ground to reach mineral bearing ground of the Argonaut beyond and to the south of the property claimed by plaintiff, and for extracting ore from defendant's own territory. The 1460 level has been extended, and is not now in use. The 1690 level has been used exclusively for the purpose of tramping the ore from its own ground to the shaft of the Argonaut.

The allegation of the complaint that Argonaut for three years last past has been extracting and mining ore from other than its own mine is denied.

It is alleged that the mining operations of the plaintiff have not extended below the 800 foot level.

Finally the claim that 50,000 tons, or any number of tons, of the value of $200,000 or any other sum, have been taken from the plaintiff's property, is absolutely denied.

Crystal Wedding at Sutter Creek

A surprise party was given to Elmer Tanner and wife at their residence Wednesday evening by a merry gathering of the ladies of Maccaebes, the occasion being the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding. Novel and amusing games and music were enjoyed, but the principal was the marriage ceremony (burlesque) of the couple, Mr. Sherwood Jr. officiating. As the first strains of a two-step rendered by Miss Elsie Madden sounded the groom, looking very happy but somewhat bashful, appeared accompanied by his best man, Thomas B. Parent, and took their stands under a rather solid but musical bell, and awaited the coming of the bride, who appeared leaning on the arm of John Shine, uncle of the groom, who gave the bride away. Preceding them were four matrons of honor carrying bouquets of flowers. The bride's attendant was Sadie Sturizia, and Mrs. T. Parent maid of honor. The bride looked charming in a gown of blue and white percale, with trimmings of white embroidery. She wore a bridal veil, carried a bouquet of pink roses. The maid of honor wore a pretty dress of pink and white. Mr. Sherwood officiated in fine style.

After the ceremony, congratulations and kisses were sincere and plenty, the groom getting more than his share of the latter. Ice cream and cake were served, after which lady Belle Simmons, in behalf of Unity Hive, presented lady Tanner with a very pretty glass dish. Mr. and Mrs. Tanner were the recipients of several very handsome cut glass presents. It was a very late hour when it dispersed with a feeling that it had been an evening heartily and most pleasantly enjoyed.

The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Toman, Mr. and Mrs. J. Shines, Miss Shine, Mrs. Parent, Eli Vandamant, E. Tucker, Mr. Sherwood, T. B. Parent and wife, Miss Elsie Madden, lady Sturizia, Simmons, Christiansa and Amy Pharis, Risedorff, Bales, Leon, Wilson, Shear, Johnson, Sturizia, Riley, Rouke, Madden, Eggleston and Vandamant of the Maccaebes.

Helpful Household Hints of Interest

Vinegar will remove lime spots; soot from an open chimney or the careless handling of stovepipes can be removed by covering thickly with salt, and this afterwards can be brushed up quickly without injury to the carpets.

Spirits of ammonia diluted with water, if applied with sponge or flannel to discolored spots, will often restore the color.

Remove ink stains with milk, and after soaking up all that seems possible either sprinkle with salt or wash with pure white soap, clean brush and warm water.

For grease spots use powdered magnesia, fuller's earth or buckwheat flour. Sprinkle on spots and let it lie until grease is absorbed. Renew the flour or other absorbent material as often as necessary.

Housewives are cautioned to look out for the carpet moth early in spring. When carpet moths are discovered, after removing all artificial lights in the room, saturate the cracks in the floor with benzine.

Wash upper edge of the carpet with a solution of corrosive sublimate and alcohol, 60 parts of poison to one part of alcohol. Be extremely careful about using this if there are children about.

For ingrain or three-ply carpets, wring a cloth out of hot water and lay it over the edges or binding and iron with an iron as hot as can be without scorching. This destroys the moth as well as the eggs.

Wilton and the heavier carpets must be steamed on the under side.

A good solution to use in wiping up the floor before putting down the rugs or carpet is as follows: A quarter of a pound of red pepper steeped in a gallon of water, to which are added two drams of strychnia powder.
